

UNCG – AFFILIATE OF THE NC ACE WOMEN'S NETWORK

Affiliate of the NC ACE
Women's Network

OUR GOALS

- Identify and support women in administrative leadership positions at UNCG.
- Build a UNCG network whereby women are identified as potential leaders and mentored in their aspirations.
- Make women at UNCG informed of opportunities they are eligible for at both the state and national levels.
- Establish links between the state network and UNCG programs focusing on women.
- Keep women at UNCG, the Chancellor, and the Provost informed regarding the ACE Network.
- Assist with state programs to encourage women aspiring to administrative leadership roles.

Calling all UNCG women leaders!

UNCG ACE NETWORK KICK-OFF

Friday, October 16
3 – 4 p.m. | Via Zoom

UNCG has recently become an affiliate of the newly re-established North Carolina American Council on Education (ACE) Network of Women Leaders, a national system with the goal of advancing and supporting women in higher education.

To get this important work started, please join us for our first meeting of UNCG's women leaders. We will introduce ourselves, talk about ACE Network goals, and most importantly, listen to the challenges you would like this group to address for our community.

The Chancellor and Provost will join the beginning of our conversation.

Your UNCG ACE Network representatives,

Dr. Sherine Obare
Dean of the Joint School of
Nanoscience and Nanoengineering,
Professor of Nanoscience

Dr. Dayna Tourn
Associate Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences,
Professor of Psychology
